Inspiring Discipleship

- Look out for 'Don't Duck Discipleship' e-postcards to share with people you think would benefit from Inspiring Discipleship.

Contact Alison Parker if you want more info

- If you wonder if this MIGHT be for you, get in touch.
- If you have QUESTIONS about the practicalities, get in touch.
- iD is handcrafted to suit you, so get in touch and we will do all we can to put you with a group of people best placed to journey with you.

MORE INFO:

Alison Parker
Regional Training Officer

Phone: 01524 846509

E-mail:
alison.parker@methodist.org.uk

The Methodist Church

Inspiring Discipleship

September 2009—
July 2010

A year to explore, in creative and relaxed ways, what being a Disciple means in your life, right now.

iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD :

RESOURCING

- A Connexional commitment
- funded via the Regions
- administered in the District
- meeting the needs of the Methodist people.

You pay £60.00 (including residential).
It is advised that you ask your Church to contribute to the costs.

WHO THIS PROGRAMME IS FOR

Small groups

If you want to reflect on your faith journey in a small group setting

Encourage individuals

If your discipleship is expressed in specific ways and you would grow if you were sharing this journey with like-minded Christains.
For example, children's ministry, local preacher, being a steward, creative arts in worship etc.

Equip individuals feeling 'nudged'

If you are beginning to explore a response to God's call, but are uncertain what this means.

Inspiring Discipleship

WHAT THE PROGRAMME INVOLVES

- Meet with likeminded Christians for six 2 hours sessions at times which suit you all.
- Visit 3 Christian communities doing Church in dynamic ways
- Pic 'n' mix from development opportunities across the North West
- One over night Residential in summer 2010.

iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD : iD :